2. Dick Jones informed us that the pipe has been ordered for the 100-yard creek crossing.
3. Bokie informed us that there were 39 people that showed up for Open House Clean-up day.
4. Keith Swicegood made a motion to separate the Saturday morning .22 matches. He would like to move the Saturday morning Bench rest match from the second Saturday to the third Saturday. The Saturday morning .22 Fun Shoot will remain on the Second Saturday. The Ron Gearren Thursday Match would also move to the Thursday following the third Saturday Fun Shoot. This would start in March of 2020. Seconded. Discussion. Passed.
The reason is the Saturday morning Bench rest match is growing and needs more room. And some of the bench rest shooters would like to shoot the Fun Match as well.
5. We heard from Jesse Lee from Cross Hill Outfitters.
6. Bokie handed out Service Awards to David McDonald and Roger Reese for their service to the Club and for their service on the Club Board of Directors. Dan Murphy, not present, was also recognized for his service as Match Director for the 2-gun Tactical match.
7. Bokie reminded everyone that Open House is on the 21st of September from 9 am to 3 pm.
